

Going on an Aisle Walk

Going on an aisle walk, what a delight,
To greet shoppers and make their day bright.
We're not here to sell, just to say hello,
And help them find their groceries to go.

Going on an aisle walk, we're the face
Of the financial institution, with lots of grace.
With each and every shopper we expect
To build relationships, strong and direct.

Going on an aisle walk, we're not pushy,
Just friendly and helpful, never mushy.
We're here to make friends,
And create relationships that never end.

So let's go on an aisle walk, without delay,
And brighten up someone's day.
We'll greet them warmly and offer assistance,
And leave them feeling happy and with no resistance.
